Crescent Homes Expands Operations to Nashville, TN

Charleston, SC — Crescent Homes SC, LLC, Charleston, SC's largest private homebuilder, announces the opening of its Tennessee division with the additions of division president, Ron Benkert and construction manager, Mike Jakubowski.

Crescent Homes has 75 lots under contract in Thompson's Station with plans to build single-family homes in the $350,000 to $700,000 price range. The homebuilder plans to begin construction in Tollgate Village this spring and nearby Bridgemore Village this summer.

Currently, Crescent Homes is building a model home, set to open at the beginning of February, at the Estates of Primm Springs community in Murfreesboro, where the homebuilder plans 50 single-family homes. Construction has also begun at the Lenox of Smyrna subdivision where the builder has acquired seven lots.

"Expanding has been an exciting endeavor. Nashville shares many of the positive attributes of our beloved Charleston, a bustling economy, welcoming and friendly people and beautiful landscapes, all of which made the decision to expand to Nashville an easy one", says CEO/ Owner of Crescent Homes, Ted Terry. "We plan to bring a high level of quality, customization and customer service to the Nashville area".

Ron Benkert, a veteran of the Nashville homebuilding industry with 35 years of experience joined the Crescent Homes team full-time in June 2016 and is responsible for overseeing the company's operations in the Tennessee area.

"The Nashville area is a dynamic marketplace, with sustained economic growth and is in high demand amongst home buyers", says Benkert. "And I have been very pleased with the land positions Crescent has been able to acquire, and I know we will be a welcomed addition to the area. The future is bright and we are looking forward to what 2017 has in store".
